- Welcome/Introductions (All Present)

- Principal Update: Matt Britten

Mr. Britten is not present today. Tomorrow, we have veterans' day ceremony. We need help with video recording the event.

- Department Updates

- President: Camille Arroyo

- Dine outs Update: Dos cayotes, was a week long. We made a 100$. We also did a spontaneous pumpkin patch fund raiser. We made 92$. They are going to do a winter land with ice land, mini golf and a ice skating rink. We will have a fundraiser for that as well. FJL is tomorrow, we will have to share the flyer to get credit. We have a fundraiser coming up in December 8 through 13 at Toastique.

- See's candies Yum-Raising: Yum raising started on Nov 1 to December 5. We can also purchase gift cards.

- Treasurer: Grace

- Spend Update: Account over read as of October is 11885.52 balance. Outflow 1167.19, event expenses from trunk or treat haven't been submitted yet. PFC supplies 160.44, annual budget is 200$. Recommend moving it to 300$ considering inflation. Ice cream 1390.45, PFC donations total to date is 16200 and general donations is 30$. We should move away ink budget from PFC to ice cream expenses. Today we have given 40 grants to teachers which is 30% utilizations. Dine out 423.16 from fresh millions, and 419.62 From Pizza my heart. Total 842.78. Diwali co Ordinator should be aware of the budget, re-usable decorations should be brought back for storage in the shed. They have 400 in the budget which rolls over every year, and we give 150 for November luncheon.

- Events: Teagin Bland

- Trunk or Treat recap: Good turnout. This year we did 2 hours. We had a decent crowd, and it wasn't tiresome. Overall great volunteers. We had 3 vendors for food. All 3 did not require a minimum, will continue to leverage them. Re used a lot of supplies. DJ was great. Candy was enough, we have some extra. The extra candy was donated to furloughed veterans. We have winners for the popsicle contest. Ms Martin and Hopman were the winners they made 53 pounds of candy.

■ Diwali Luncheon Update: Celebration is on 14th, there will be a luncheon for the staff. In December we have 2 volunteers for faculty lunch. For next year, we need more volunteers. We have a budget we can give to the volunteers.

■ Panther Parent Night out: It's in December. Friday Dec 5. We want to give parents a night out and drop the kids at MPR. It is only open for Fred students. 25$ per student 6-8:30. Will show polar express. Will have Santa letter writing or a craft. There will be hot chocolate. DHS volunteers and will have some adults as well. Adults who volunteer and their kids can come for free.

● Open Discussion (All Present)
